

Bambridge is below in the Lodge and wants to — speak with you to which this Examinant's Husband reply'd, If he wants to speak with me let him come up, I don't care to go down, upon which the said Bambridge came up and after some Compliments pass'd the said Bambridge sayd Mr. Johnson wont you gett up, I have Coffee making wont you — Breakfast with me, No sayd he, I will Breakfast with my Wife here is none but my Wife and the said West being withdrawn the said Bambridge sayd Mr. Johnson wont you let your Wife go to that place this afternoon, to which Johnson answered She may go if she will. This Examinant sayd I don't care to do any Thing Upon which the said Bambridge sayd to this Examinant Your Husband stands very much in his own sight I don't see any hopes of his ever having his Liberty unless he takes this step I am advising him to, To which this Examinant sayd She hoped he would do nothing but upon honourable Terms or what was — Honourable, he has been trifled with too much already And the said Bambridge reply'd I will leave him to consider of it and you may consult together about it, I will send for you and Mr. West shall call on you at four of the Clock in the afternoon Upon which this Examinant ask'd where am I to go, To which Bambridge answered You are to go to a grave old Gentleman who will do you no Hurt, And this Examinant ask'd what is it for, To which —
