

Examinant asked Ackerman whom he (meaning Campbell) came to now Cambridge is gone And this Examinant Admits that he hath Eat and Drank with him with the said Cambridge but never remembers he had private conversation with him (Campbell)
And the said Examinant being asked what Habit the Gentleman said to be Lord Chief Justice Eyre had, Says he thinks he was in Black And being asked a Question upon a former Examination why he believed the Lord Chief Justice Eyre's Son frequently visited Huggins in Newgate Saith that Mr. Brown Told him that the Lord Chief Justice Eyre's Son was concerned for Huggins and for Pitt the Keeper of Newgate and that he was several times with Huggins.

R. Johnson

Roger Johnson being Examined in the most Solemn Manner this Twenty fourth day of April 1730. and being asked how he knows the paper writing now produced to him Marked to be a true Copy of the paper which he signed Saith that the Original paper which he this Examinant signed was Read to this Examinant twice, Once by Richard Beatus

and