

Same was foulded down that this Examinant might not nor could see the same nor Read the Contents thereof For which Reason this Examinant Objected to the Signing of the same whereupon the said West and ~~Thomas~~ Barnbridge who bro^t the said Original Paper to this Examinant or one of them (but which of them this Examinant doth not now remember) urged this Examinant to Set or Subscribe his Name thereto Saying, What are you affraid off? Do you think We woud do you any Harm, Depend upon it this wile do your Business; by which Perswasion this Examinant did Sign the said Original paper without reading the same or knowing the Contents thereof And immediately after this Examinant had so signed the same The said Barnbridge and West or one of them Carried the same away And afterwards the said Beatniff and West came to this Examinant and they or One of them brought the said Original paper Writing again to this Examinant when the said Beatniff made and delivered to this Examinant the said produced Copy or paper Writing as aforesaid.
 And this Examinant saith That he had but very little sight of the said Original paper Writing but beleives the same was wrote in a little stronger Hand than the said produced paper and without any other difference as this Examinant beleives but cannot be positive Neither can this

Examinant
