

Examinant say whether the said Original paper was wrote only on one Side or whether it was wrote on two Sides this Examinant cannot say, the same having been folded or doubled down when this Examinant signed the same as aforesaid. And this Examinant further saith That he can't be positive what Discourse passed between him this Examinant

Brown and this Examinant's Wife the Day on which the Gentleman supposed to be the Lord Chief Justice Eyre was with the said Bambridges in Newgate but this Examinant remembers there was some Discourse between them relating to the Lord Chief Justice's having been there and this Examinant believes that such Discourse was began by the said Brown and that he this Examinant joined with him therein and this Examinant further saith That on the first Day that he attended this Honourable Committee after this Examinant's Return to Newgate he this Examinant was Insulted by a Runner or Messenger belonging to the said Goal and that he hath since been Treated with ill Language and upbraided by others for attending this Committee particularly this Examinant saith That Thomas Loyd a Turkey of the said Goal called this Examinant Informing Rogues and Villain