

Say. Did your Son go with you that Day Mr. Smith was there? probably he might but I can't be particular. Was there any mention made by you of the Cells as you went thro' the press Yard? No. Do you think you should know Johnson? I am very well assured I should not. Have you lost your Teeth before? No.

You have given an Account of a fatter Jolly Comely person to be with Bambridge in Newgate are you positive and Sure that the View you had of him was Sufficient to distinguish him, and that you should know the person that was sitting in the Armed Chair with Bambridge

Bau Bridges

Mr Hughes, The London
I ask You is of too great Consequence to Admit of Mistake (2 to 5714 to h...s. Mr. H:
re 10 to h...s. 1.2. of 571
2 10 to h...s.)