

in the press yard? There was Mr. Brown. Is the press yard for prisoners? Yes.

Smith

When did you go away? I went away before dark that Day I saw Johnson.

Johnson.

Did this person supposed to be Lord Chief Justice Eyre come in ⁱⁿ a public or private Manner? I believe he came in ⁱⁿ a private Manner. How do you know? Because he held his Handkerchief rubbing his Mouth. Was this person's Countenance so open that every body might see him? I looked at him but once, because I knew he came to Cambridge. Did he hold his Handkerchief at that time when he turned Once or Twice? I did not look very stern at him, but I believe he had a Handkerchief then. Was the press yard a public place that the prisoners may go there at their pleasure? Yes those that lie on that side the Goal. What is the Number of those that lie on that side? I believe there is Ten or Twelve lie there now. When that person who you call My Lord came up into the Room, did you and Brown retire? Cambridge desired us to retire, & we went down into the Yard. Was that the same Evening that Brown was with you? It was the same Day. Brown went out of the Room, Did you return into the Room? Not till after the person was gone.

Do you remember what Conversation you had with Cambridge that Evening after you returned? I don't remember I had any. Did you spend the Evening after he was gone with Cambridge? I believe I did not. Do you remember with whom you spent that Evening? I believe with Mr. Brown in his Room.

Was.
