

Was there any other company? No, Except my Wife.
Had you any conversation with Brown that Evening? about this person? We were saying nothing would affect Bambridge, while such a person stood by him. What did you mean by such a man? Because Mr. Brown said it was Judge Eyre, Then I said I was informed he had made him a present of a Ship made of Amber, I don't remember any more of it.

Mr. Smith. That Day you was in Newgate, Did you know who dined with Bambridge? That very Day Johnson shewed the Cup of China he came in to Bambridge & the Virtuals was not taken away, Johnson was out when I first came in, and Johnson came in after, and spoke of the Cup, and by what I could recollect, I believe Johnson dined there.

Johnson. Do you remember Mr. Brown said he knew him to be Lord Chief Justice Eyre that Afternoon that he was there? Yes he did.

Mr. Smith. Did you walk that Night with Bambridge in the press Yard? I never did.

Johnson. Did Brown positively tell you that he knew that person that you two had seen, was Lord Chief Justice Eyre at that very time? Brown did tell me so.

+ The Comm^{ee} being in Debate who to Examine Mr. Hughes the Chairman observed to the Committee that it might be proper to Examine Mr. Birnie for that he had had this Morning some Queries put in his hands to Examine her to.

JOVIS 30. die Aprilis 1730.

+ Then after some Debate John Campbell was Examined in the most Solemn Manner,

I desire he may be asked if he delivered any papers to any persons Hand belonging to this House relating to any Inquiry.

Whereupon the Committee desired they might be read which was accordingly done, and they are as follows Whether Bambridge while in Newgate did not desire her to go with a Letter to Serjants Inn in Chancery Lane. (Turn over)
