

This Contrivance. What do you mean by this Contrivance? The Subornation, Johnson told me that he was to swear that I came into Newgate to swear against an Honble person. What Honble person? The person suggested against whom I was to give Evidence was Lord Chief Justice Eyre. Birnie mentioned the Letter three weeks ago? I believe that was the time. Was it longer? I can't say. How happened it that you did not mention so material a circumstance in your former Examination? I was not Examined then as to any conversation with Mrs Birnie. Did you not apprehend this to be a material circumstance as to what she said before?

† Heads for Examining Mr. Smith.

Whether Two or Three Days before Mr. Bambridge's Trial for the felony was expected to come on during the time B. being in Newgate, she did not carry a Letter to L. C. J.

Whether the said Letters were not conceived in hope or the like Terms viz: That Mr. Bambridge had not a single Guinea in the House & that — therefore his Trial coming on such a Day he (B. J.) hoped his ... would provide for it accordingly.

Whether upon her carrying this or any other Letter from Mrs. Bambridge to ... the sum of One Hundred Guineas in Gold or some such large sum were sent by her hands from ... to Bambridge?

Whether she carried any other & what message from B. J. to ... & whether she received any other & what sum at any time upon that Account.

To Edward Hughes Esq. These.

I'll put this Matter out of Doubt, I did put some Queries of this Matter in a Letter to Harbin directed to Edward Hughes Esq. — (Which see †) Why did you not mention it on your former Examination? It was the first time I was Examined, and I did not know whether I ought to speak to any thing that I was not asked to. What were those Queries you sent to Harbin? The Title of them were for Mr. Smith, the Subject was not altered. Was those Queries before delivered: as to Mr. Smith of the same Substance as those to be asked Mr. Birnie? As to the Substance they were, as far as Circumstances could agree with the Nature of persons they do agree. Did you ever shew this paper to Mr. Birnie? No, I don't think it proper any person should be shewn any paper they are to be Examined to or prepossessed with what they were to be Examined to. — You have mentioned one Harbin, I desire to know if you ever
