

75. don't know but I might. What reason have you to suppose that Mr. Smith carried the letter to Lord Chief Justice Eyre? My reason is, That Mr. Bambridge was in conversation about my Lord Chief Justice Eyre and Bambridge said to me, I want you to go to try him but I said I was not a proper person to do so Mr. Smith. Who did persuade you to make an Information upon Oath? Harbiny and Campbell both said when I said the words that there was a 9- strange contrivance of Bambridge's wherein he had a mind to involve me, I said he talks of a justification, he forgets what he said to me in the Bar. but whether it was Harbiny or Campbell. Told Mr.
Hughes, I can't say. Where did you make this + Affidavit? Before Mr. Hughes. Did Bambridge tell you Lord Chief Justice Eyre was with him at Newgate? He did tell me so, but I would not depend upon Bambridge's Veracity. Did you ever pretend to tell the contents of the letter to Campbell? I never saw the inside, I never ~~could~~ could tell the contents.
+ Did you conjecture the contents? Yes. Did you tell Harbiny or Campbell of it? Yes. Give an account of any conversation you had with him the day he refused to be tried by J. W. Thompsons? He said the Gentlemen of the Committee wanted him to give up Lord Chief Justice Eyre but he would be sent in prison first, and a day or two after he said, if he knew how to give him up and the Gentlemen of the Committee would have any confidence in him, he would give him up and he would have had me made an application
