

pounds received of Mr. Alderman Child? From Bambridge. You were saying several members came to your House? My maid said so, I was not at Home. By what means did you bring the money you paid to Bambridge? By Notes I had from Mr. Bambridge on people that were due to him. Did you go to receive the Notes? Yes.
 Where did you receive the hundred pounds from?
 Mr. Child, I think I received part first and so endorsed the Remainder on the back of the Note, and I carried that money to Bambridge. Who had you the Notes from? From Bambridge.
 Whose Note was it? I think it was Mr. Child's Note.

Mrs Birnie being again called into be confronted with this Witness as to the carrying a Letter to Lord Chief Justice to Serjeants Inn was again Examined.

Mrs Birnie.

Is this Mr. Smith you spoke of? Yes. Is this Mr. Smith that carried the Letter that you refused to carry and who you heard give an Account that she had Succeeded? I say Sir that Mr. Bambridge desired me to carry a Letter which I refused Bambridge told me he did deliver that Letter to Mr. Smith and was sitting in the Room when Mr. Smith came in, and Bambridge asked her if she had Succeeded, and Smith says Yes.

Mrs. Smith

Give an Account what you remember of this Conversation? I remember nothing of it because it never was, Mr. Bambridge never gave
