

Liberty. And I took that letter to be putting him into a method of getting his Liberty. What method? By aspersing the Character of a Gentleman. — Was it said to be a letter to Johnson? It was said to be a letter to him. Did you see the Directions? No. How come you to understand that the letter was Directed to Johnson? Johnson said so. — Did you hear the Name of Lord Chief Justice Eyre in all that Conversation? No. Should you have heard it if it had been mentioned? There were some words whispered.

Thomas Langley was again called in and Examined

Who was Johnson's Acquaintance? Not Welland. It was the other Man with Welland. Was he and Johnson very familiar? I can't say they were. Did you hear the Conversation that passed? I did some. Did you hear them mention the Name of Campbell? Yes. Was Brewer in Company then? Yes. Can you charge your Memory what Name was mentioned by Johnson? I know nothing more than what I said before. Did they talk pretty loud? Yes. Did they whisper? No, I did not perceive them to whisper. Where was you? I was to and fro in the Lodge. Did you ^{see} hear them whisper? No. — Did you hear them mention Lord Chief Justice Eyre's Name? I can't say I did.

Did