

99.
They mentioned the Discourse that Blanchville had had with me, and I said I thought they were all mad.

You said when Codnor came there was another person with him. Do you think you should know him? I think I should not, I took him to be his Brother. Do you know Roger Johnson, or Brown?
Yes. Was it either of them? No.

About the sixth of February Mr. Johnson came to borrow the Key of my Room for a little Water, and he not bringing the Key again, I sent another to ^{but not bringing it I went myself} fetch it, and when I came down for the Key, Johnson desired me to walk into his Room and drink something, he was always rude to me before, I was surprized at his civility, I accepted his Offer and went in, and there was a gentleman and his wife with Roger Johnson and his wife, and they began to talk of other Stories, and Johnson said He hoped to see Cambridge and two or three of the Judges hanged in two or three Months time.

Who was the Woman that first spoke to you when Blanchville spoke to you of this Affair?
Mrs Fromantle. What was it they told you?
That I might save Everetts Life. Who told you that? Blanchville.

James Fitzgerald was Examined

I desire he may be asked if he was not desired to Swear against Lord Chief Justice Eyre? Not to Swear. What Application was made to you? One
