

were always upon the same Subject, and Savage said it would be a merit to do it, but Harbin was not so strenuous as Savage. Did Harbin say the same thing? No, Savage said it would be the making of him & me. Was Harbin present then? No, when Savage said it would be the making of him and me, he shewed me a petition which was of his own writing, it was something relating to what he had sworn at the Old Bailey & he said there was only one Day's difference in Swearing which made them call him a perjured Man. Was Harbin present, when Savage told you, it would be the making of him and you? No. Was he present at the time when Savage shew'd you the petition? No, but Savage and Harbin both told me that there were Affidavits made already, and that I knew these things and mentioned that Codnor Campbell & Cambridge's Man had made Affidavits of it, and Savage said you don't know the consequences of not going along with me and it will be better for you and me if you will go. Was Harbin then by? Yes. When was this? This was last Friday. At any time after you told Harbin you could not speak to this matter, Did Harbin speak to you? Yes, They spoke to me and asked me if I had thought any thing of this matter, again, said you give us any Minutes and said if I would go, my Name should not be asked in Question, I should go privately. To whom? To Mr. Ogletthorpe and Mr. Hughes. What Answer did you give to Savage and Harbin, when they press'd you first to this Information? I used to laugh at them
