

After S^r Robert Walpole had ended, the Attorney General made a Short Speech, & made the following Motion

That it appears to this Committee that there hath been wicked Conspiracy carried on by certain infamous & profane persons to vilify & sperse the Character of the Right Honourable the Sir Robert Eyre Knight Lord Ch. Justice of his Majesty's Court of Common Pleas

This motion made by S^r Phillip York att^r Gen^l delivered to me in the Chair. E. Hughes

Then S^r George Oxendon rose up & made the following Motion

That it appears to this Committee that the Informations given to this Committee of the ^{said} Lord Ch. Justice Eyre are false malicious scandalous & utterly groundless.

These remarkable Expressions, S^r I know it is my duty always to address my self to the Chair, But never more so then now

This motion was made by S^r Geo. Oxington delivered up to him by the att^r Gen^l & was in his own hand, Delivered down to me from S^r Geo. Oxington when he was in the Chair upon the Question being put E. Hughes Tho^s Lewis Esq^r - said no by G^{en}

So soon as the said Motions were agreed to, & before M^r Hughes had put the Question for adjourning, severall of the Members standing out of their places on the Floor, & S^r Robert Walpole having got to the Barr going out of the House, M^r Hughes called to order & desired Gentlemen to take their places
