

Joan Bro. Trunk Sept 15th. 1665 for yowrs of the 9th of Nov of saturday the other last night so how he not answer them till this time, so as to Thomas Kippers letters Jfe. he is earnest with you for mondy to pay of his mon, I think he ought to have wrote to Mr. Grotter wiggitt, whom he have had his part of gold all a long, and his holand profits, and have not furnished him one penny this hold summer, for the gold that we have I paid him then 6th of June as they would. To Linders, and you know we have had none since, when he was in the country he told me he must write to you for mondy for wages I then told him that he must look to Grotter wiggitt for it, as for the mondy of Lawin Gargall Jouders him to pay all his bill now 10th about 20 weeks since but understand that it can not yett be found, for the rope he wrote of it is true — Jh. Turner has a rope of him that came to I think about 14th but I had not one penny for it of Jh. Turner for he told me the ship was in port & at his returne should I have it, if I had mondy as I have had would help him, but now I can gitt none out of holland now else where at present so I can not doe it, and he must charge all wiggitt for it, & which is but reason, so I thank you for yowr care as to Coston Amis, I wish that I would in a capacity to
