Journey: Dispatches
1747-8.

Immediately, and the Major at that place to receive Orders from the Col: who commands the Escort of the Baggage. All Baggage Horses & Chaises to go with the Train.

N: B: The Detachmt. under Monsr. Sholls from Kuy & the 11 Battalions from the Army the whole Commanded by Count Noyelles. At Night we received Ordrs to pull down our Tents immediately after the Retreat & the Army marched about 10 in the following Order; Count Noyelles & his Detatchmt. first. The Horse of both Wings to follow him and got upon his flanks & then the Body of our Army to follow in 2 Lines. Monsr. Overick who had passed the Mahaigne the day before with his Army was to send a Strong Detatchmt. towards the Lines, to give the Enemy Jealousy on that side, & immediately to pass the Mahaigne and joyn our Army in following our March. The Night being very Dark the Guides missed their Way, but nevertheless the Army advancing in this manner about Break of day the Grenadiers of Count Noyelles Detatchment came to the Lines near Orsmall & Hesppen where they passed the Gette & attacked the Guard in the Castle & at the Barrier. The Enemy who had 8 or 10 Squadrons of Dragoons encamp'd between this place & St. Lew seeing their Guard surprised and our Troops entering the Lines at 2 places & finding they were cut off from their Army retired to St. Liew, being obliged to leave their Tents and Baggage behind. The Enemy were all in Movement on the Right to come and oppose us but before they got any Considerable Body we had above 8000 Men in the Lines, Our Horse who passed next to the Detatchmt, formed in Battle to receive the Enemy, who came to the Number of 50 Squadrons & 12 or 14 Battalions commanded by Monsr. de Randore. As soon as our Horse formed they endeavour'd to attack the Enemy, but finding a Hollow way between their Squadrons & ours some Battalions of our Foot were ordered to advance & fire from the hollow way on the Enemies Squadrons which gave time to our Horse to pass the hollow Way; where they had no sooner got but they charged the Enemy & broke thro' their Squadrons, put them to the flight & pursued them behind their Foot; Some Squadrons rallyed and came again to the Charge but were put to the Rout a 2.d time. Their Foot begun then to make off as did their whole Army, when they saw it was too late to oppose the Our Army being allmost all passed the Lines. About Wo Colended our Right Wing towards Tirlemont, made Ourselves Masters of that place, where we took a Battalion Prisoners. In this Action the Enemy lost 9 pieces of Cannon, a pair of Kettle Drums 14 Standards & 8 Colours, and above 120 Officers Prisoners, among whom were the Marquis D'Alegre & Count de Horn Lieut.t Generals. Don Andreas Benites Major Gen.l dyed of his Wounds, 3 Brigadiers & 12.l other Officers of Note.

N:B: The Enemy finding we did not pursue them, made a prodigious March that Night, towards Louvain, by Andoign, & passed the Dyle at Never, and Louvain, to defend that River which runs into the Demer.

N:B: We did not march till 9 in the Morning of the 19.th & when we came to Park found the Rear of the Enemy, just passed the River at Hever; Our Horse took about 800 of their Straglers Prisoners.

The Wounded & Sick to go to the Bread Waggons by Break of day, and to go to Tirlemont, All the Horses & Carts belonging to that place to be at the Camp Guards, to be deliverd to the Waliens when they demand them; The post upon the right to be relieved by a Major & 250 who is to have 2 Carts with him; One with Ammunition & another with Tools; Wheel Baggage to return to their Regiments.

N:B: Upon a false Allarm that the Enemy were passing the Dyle, to attack our Guards on the Right, the pickets were orderd out, and the first Battalion of Orkneys as being at hand, which the Enemy perceiving took to the River side & Skirmished, in which the Regiment Royal lost Captain Moorhead and Horne and Eight or 9 Wounded; Several Soldiers of the Picket were likewise wounded. This Mistake was occasioned by the Major who commanded the Outguards, not knowing the River was so near and seeing the Enemy working on the other side, fancyed they were passing.

N:B: The Enemy have Cannonaded us in their Camps & continue it but with no Success, They have abandoid Aerschot & broke down the Bridges on the Demer at that place.

N.B Our Heavy Baggage being sent away to Tirlemont, a Detachm.t was made of 18 Battalions & 20 Squadrons commanded by Col.: Oxenshern & Lieuten.t Gen.l Henelom of Mons.r Overkirks Army & the Horse by Duke of Wirtemberg which march'd with the Artillery & Pontons at 8 at Night, to try to lay Bridges over the Dyle at Neer-ische & Corbeek. At 11 the whole Army was on March, & about Break of day the Front arrived at Corbeek, where our Detachm.t under our Camon had laid a Bridge & all the Grenadiers of the Detachm.t passed over, & had beat the Enemy from a Post they had near that place. Mons.r Henelom did the same at his Bridge, having passed over with 10 Battalions and made himself Master of Neerische. The Army being come up my Lord Duke consulted the Generals about passing who were most of Opinion that it was not practicable for the Horse, upon which his Grace gave Orders immediately to take up the Bridges & retire, The Enemy perceiving our Bridges taken, advanced to Villages on the other Side & Cannonaded our Army on their March, but with no Success, our Cannon did Execution among the Enemy, while our Bridges were laying.

N.B: Various are the Opinions in this Affair, Some think we might have passed, others that the Horse could not, and others that the Enemy would have retreated, but what appears most certain is, that the French Household & all the Bavarian and Liege Troops were come up behind the Rising Grounds, on the other Side of the River, before we fired a Cannon with Resolution to stay for us, which must have cost us very dear had we passed with Success, We encampt this Night our Right near Meldert and Monsr. The Army to encamp as they are now drawn up no body to stir the Pickets to be advanced before each Regiment

Between 4 and 5 in the Morning The Army began to pass the Bridges and March through great Defiles and Woods into the Plain between the Chappel of Malaise & Heligberg along the Eifsche; where the Enemy began to draw out of their Camps and form in Battle posseising the high Grounds from the bois de Soignes to Neeijsche: Genl. Churchill with his Detachment marched to Hollar in the bois de Soignies to have taken the Enemy in Flank in case we had attacked but the Enemy having notice of this Detachment had cut down Trees so that the ways were almost impracticable and besides had entrenched at the coming out of the Wood, which would have made his Attack difficult until we had got some advantage of them. about 2 in the Afternoon our whole whole Army had got through the Defilees and his Grace viewing the Ground very near saw the Enemy's Post was advantagious but was notwithstanding for Attacking them and went to concert the Disposition with the Dutch Generals and the States Deputies who sometimes were for it and afterwards against it till it was too late this Night Mr Churchills Detachment were acquainted by the Duke of the Difficulties of the Passes. we lay on our Arms pitching Tents as we were drawn up in expectation to attack the Enemy next day but it was positively refused by the Dutch and indeed few of our own Generals were for it. The Ground being extreemly disadvantagious and not at all what it had been represented to his Grace. The Enemy cannonaded some of our advanced Parties but did no Damage.

19th In the Morning ordered at 10 the Baggage was sent away & the Army to March at 3 in the Afternoon.

that the Enemy was posted between Judgoine and Bonneffe as we advanced towards Moordeorp we had an Acct. that the Enemy were putting themselves in battle to stay for us and it is thought would have Attacked us if we had not gone to them, But is immediately Resolved to Attack them and accordingly The Army advanced in 8 Columns The right wing extending towards Autre eglise in their Front, Ramilies before the Center or left of the line of Foot & Faviers on the left the Enemys Lines were posted behind the Villages and their right Wing close to the Mahain their left was Covered almost to the Center with Rivolets, and Marshy ground where the Jeet has its Source, and of very difficult Access but from Rama-lies to their Right was all Plain, The Attack began on the Village of Ramalies and that part of their Line to the right of it The horse were chiefly Engaged on the Plain where it was sharply disputed, our Line having been pierced by the Enemy, but the Duke caused all the Danish Horse march to the left and Sustained the Attack which was done with such Vigour that the Enemys right wing was obliged to give way as they did soon after with their whole Army. Lord Orkney had passed the Ruissean and Marshy Grounds and had taken Possession of the Avenues of Richeglise times a day and to know what loss on the March, a Captain & 100 Men for the main Guard.

NB About ten in the Morning the head of the horse arrived at la Bassa and Marched thro that place in order to draw upon the Plains to refresh, The Foot followed and marched into the Town and encamped on the old Works within the Fosses, the six pieces of Cannon we had with us were drawn up on the Market place, Our Hussars and free Company took a patrouile of the Enemy of 28 Troopers who had been sent from Lens where the Enemy had 800 Horse and 1300 Foot who upon the intelligence of our Approach not believing it so great a Detachment, had marched with all their horse towards La Bassee the Front of our Squadrons with our Hussars and free Company charged them on the Plains and killed several, and a Colonel, Lieut. Colonel and 3 or 4 Captains with several other Officers and above 130 other prisoners and drove the whole, back to Lens to which place Count Tilly pursued his March with all the Horse and finding they had foot there first summond them to surrender (which they refused) and then sent to La Bassee to my Lord for foot who sent him 4 Battalions, the 1000 Grenadiers and 4 pieces of Cannon Destrick and Hohlear upon which he drew all his foot up in two Lines in an opening on the Heath near Weynendale between two little Woods which covered his Flanks & posted the Battalions and Grenadiers that had been at Oudenburgh and came up a little before the Action in a third Line and likewise posted some Battalions and Pelotins in the Woods in front of the Flanks which flanked the opening through which the Enemy must come to him, about 3 o'clock, they began to Canonade him and at 5 Attack'd him with 4 Lines of Foot and 4 horse they were repulsed several times and all our people behaved extremely well The Enemy after several Attacks retired towards night and our people did the same, and came next day to Rousdaer where the Convoy had got safe before them, The Enemy thought to have in a manner eat us up and taken all our Convoy they being 40 Battalions & 46 Squadrons and we not 7000 Men by reason of great Detachments that were out of our Battalions. The Enemy's loss was computed about 3000 killed and wounded & ours not above 900 of which not above 115 killed

The same night the Enemy attempted to throw in a Succour of Ammunition at the Douay Port to Lille being 15 Squadrons with Sacks of Powder before them and came in at our Circum vallation at midnight calling out where they were Challenged a Detachment from Marlborough's Army but they were discover'd when about 600 of them had yet within the Lines & Regiments taking Arms fired on them, those 600 got in to the Town and the rest made what haste they could back we killed & took several and in the Action their Powder took Fire which blew up about 50 a 60 of them with such a prodigious noise that we thought it had been a Mine Sprung morning for good success & had the disposition sent us for y^e Attack

th 11 The Signal to attack being given by a discharge of all the Artillery from Batterys we had made in the night. between 8 and 9 in the Morning (for no sooner could we act by reason of an extraordinary thick Fog which about that time was disipated) Prince Eugenes Army with the Battalions from Tournay and 20 Battalions under Count Lottum Attacked on the Bois de sart and after some hours sharp dispute drove the Enemy into the plain between the Wood and Ergnerine The Prussian Foot who attacked the part of the Wood next the plain being pushed about 11 o Clock by fresh Battalions which the Enemy sent from the Intrenchments on the plain to regain that part of the Wood that flank:d them Lord Orkney sent in the first Battalion of Guards and his own first Battalion to sustain the Prussians who beat the Enemy out of the Wood again and so we continued entirely masters of the Wood while it was thus upon the right. The Dutch foot on the left were severely handled having attacked with the utmost Bravery entrenchment after entrenchment beat the Enemy out of them all, but fresh troops coming from all hands upon them they were beat out again with great loss. and altho they attacked and again beat them out of all their entrenchments yet it was impossible for them to maintain themselves by reason of the great number who attacked them from all the plains but tho it cost them dear it contributed very much to the gain of the Battle by reason of the very great Diversion it gave to the Enemy, from employing these Troops against our right. For in the mean time Lord Orkneys Command took possession of the entrenchments next the Woods and gave our Horse opportunity to come up and form'd thro the Avertures the Enemys had left which the

Enemy

Enemy perceiving they advanced with both their Lines of Horse and came to the Charge with ours before we had above 30 Squad.rs formed through the Overtures which at first put ours in Confusion being sustained by fresh Squadrons and by the foot under Lord Orkney they charged the Enemys several times and found them at last to Retreat, during the first little advantage their horse had over ours they brought down some foot to regain the entrenchment from our Foot and had actually beat some Hanover Battalions from it but being encouraged by Lord Orkney they took up post again Then the Enemys (perceived that the Detachment under the Duke of Argyl had got thrô the Wood on the left) fearing to be taken in Flank went off altogether both Foot and horse we pursued them about a league and remained Masters of the Field of Battle 14 pieces of Cannon with several Standards and Colours which with some prisoners were the Trophies of this glorious dear bought Victory where our Foot (especially British and Dutch) gave the Enemys clear proof that they could beat them any where. The Enemy retired by Bavay towards Gueinoye

th 12 In the afternoon the Army marched back thro the field of (St Jaques and Turin) battle to our former camp of Bengnies, but there being several wounded Officers in that castle The Duke took his Quarters at the Abby of Belian. Ordered to take the Names and Qualities of all the wounded Officers of the French found either in Houses or the field of Battle and upon giving their parole to have leave leave to be transported. we had certain Accounts that Marshall Villars was wounded by a Musquet Shot in the Knee and that Mons.r De Bufflers had taken Command of their Army which encamped between Gnesnoye and Valenoienne

	No
Engineers	48.
5 Companys of Artillery consisting of 150 Each	750.
2 Detachments of Miners	80.
1 Major, his Clerk, 4 Battery Masters and 16 Sub Battery Masters	22.
Total	900.

I should think that one Company more of 150, & twenty miners would Be Sufficient for any Siege; Because there are always Detachments from the army to the Bateryes at Mezin for Example he had 72 Pieces of 24 Ix Batery & 6 6 Mortars and there was always 600 men Comanded at the Bateryes who had Half a Crown a Day, for the Colonns there was a man Comanded to Each Mortar; With a 100 a Capn & two Subalterns
