

providing they keep good Order, The Serjeant of the Grand Round to give the Parole to the Serjeants of the Guards and then their Officer is to give it to the Grand Round no other methods to be used. The orderly Guards at 6.

June 30th
Hensden

Sommerville
Tettan
Withers

} Day

Bush

Hallenbach

} Pig^t

In case of Alarm the Piquet of the First Brigade to parade at Marlborough's, to be the readier to sustain the Guard at the Chappel. The Sick to be sent to the Bread Waggon at 4 in the Morning, The same Court-Martial that was ordered last to be to morrow by 8 at the General's Quarters, Co. Willegreen President, and at the same time and place another Court-Martial. Colonel Tatten President. The Guards to morrow by 5.

July 1st
Bommel

Pr. Kesse

Ld Oakney

Hamilton

} Day

Warlensleben

Repestorf

} Piquet

They who have bad Powder may give it in to the Train and get other in place of it. The ordinary Guards at 6.

2^d

Leyden

Sholts

Ingoldsby

Hulzen

} Day

Bomback

Valk

} Pig^t

No body to stir out of Camp without leave, if any Soldiers are found Plundering or manranging without the Outguards they shall be hanged without mercy, The Colonel as well as y^e Major shall be answerable for all disorders and the General recommends to all Officers to hinder Manranging, they who want Forrage may send to the Rear with a Guard and no Soldiers to go with them but those Commanded, Those that have not signed the Rolls, for the Contribution to the Church are