

1704

Assembly Half an Hour after and march immediately by the Right the first and third Brigades to be in the first Line and the second Brigade in the 2<sup>d</sup>; Orkneys second Battalion to march Tomorrow in the Rear; General's baggage follow the Train. The Rest to follow them, none to offer to go before. The Quarter Masters with only six of the Men at the Head of the Hessian Regiment, Every body to march as strong and clean as possible and all the Officers in their Siver Cloaths Darby's Regiment with the Train.

NB

Not marched till 2 Afternoon, The Artillery near the Camp with Darby's, &

Howe's Regiments

27th
Camp at Spingen

St. Charles & Lisbon: Joyned Prince Louis & the Duke of Marlborough at the Camp at Spingen, were Reviewed on the March, the Men to get themselves clean & in good Order

28

Gen of
St. Paul } day
Hulzen }

Mark at

Lieuten: Cob Livington }
Major Campbell } Riquet

That each Major cause advertis the Soldiers, Man by Man that whoever takes any thing from the Boats, who bring provisions to the Camp, were it but an Egg, shall be hanged; those who have no Forrage may send for it; the Grand Gen: of Horses to cover them: a List to be given in of the dead & deserted, & of sick that are gone away since we came from Garrison, The Riquet only to roll among Ourselves. The Lieuten: Cob to go in the first Line & the Major in the Rear or Second: Each Man to have 24 Shots made up and the insufficient powder returned to the Train.

June 29th

Conte de Hoorn
D'Herleville
Ferguson

St. Teresa & Dufeldorp

Stern

Mordaunt

The Generals at break of day, Assembly at 4 & at 5 the March. The Generals baggage to march this Night at 6, to be drawn up upon the Height without the Town, the baggage of the Lines to stay till called for, that of the second Line to march first; Quarter Masters at 3 before the port of Memingen. The