

August 1st

Lord Orkney
Rantzau
Hensler

St. Bartholomee & Aurburg } M. Leathy

The Waggoners that brought Bread to take a Certificate of what they delivered, to the Regiments; Tomorrow the Waggoners to be at the Chapell with a Man of a Regiment and a Sergeant of a Brigade who is to take a Receipt of what Bread is given. The Officer of the Guard on the Bread Waggoners is to assist the Commissary when required. The Captain that reinforces the Train Guard is to stay on 24 Hours.

2^d

Ingoldby
Lake
Ferguson

St. George & Philipburg } Lieut. Col. Livingston

Those that are in great want of Forrage may send out Tomorrow under the Horse Cover, and a small Escort of each Regiment, the Majors to inform themselves what price the Cullers put on Beer and to give a Report of it to the Quartermasters of each Regiment, to settle Accounts with the Commissary of the Bread and Account to be given of what Oxen Waggoners & Horses each Regiment has and from what Country they are. V.B. The Baggage sent away at 2 Afternoon.

3^d

Lord Cuthbert
Withers
Webb

St. Antoine & Prague } Lieut. Col. Dalze

The Generals at Half an Hour after 3. Assembly at 4, & to be ready to march immediately. Quartermasters at Head of Wittenburgs Grenad^{rs} at 2 in the Morning

4th

Kupack

Lord Orkney
Palant
Row

St. Jacques & Born } Lieut. Col. Stern

The Artillery to be ready to march by break of day and the Baggage to follow. Quartermasters previously at 2 at Lore Regiment. The Account to be put in Arrest. Genl. at 6. Assembly at 7 and to be ready to march immediately by the Right. The Army to follow the Imperialists.