

17th

Ingoldesby }
 Wernsdorf } London
 Sacken }

Temple
 Melville
 Rhore
 Lieut. Col. Newton R

The Foragers to be ready at the Head of their Regiments at 6 & to march from the Right, the Quarter Ma^r of each Regiment to go with them to take Care they do not go beyond the Escort. To forage for 3 days. Col. Lieuten. Col. & Major & Officers in proportion with 100 to night at 6 at Woods Regiment.
 N.B. The Foot of the 1st Line reviewed at the Head of the Camp. The Hakes were there.

15th

Oxenheim }
 Eberfoot } Copenhagen.
 Cappol }

Temple
 Swank
 Rhore
 Lieut. Col. Lindsay R

The 2^d Piquet commanded as usual; None to stir out of Camp.

16th

Lord Orkney }
 S. Paul } Berlin
 P. Sonderburg }

Martensleben
 Prebrius.
 Buckridge
 Lieut. Col. Wilkey R

Nobody to go out of Camp. The Report of the Picket at 8 at the Dukes
 N.B. The Detachm^t from Huy encamp'd at Tourine.

17th In the Morning order'd, a Col. Lieuten. Col. & Major & 400 to guard the Wheel Baggage, which is to be loaded, & sent to Tourine at 5 this Evening. The Baggage to have only servants & no Guard but the Escort. The sick to be sent at 12 this day to the Bread Waggon.

N.B. The Detachm^t with Lieuten. Gen. Holts from Huy march'd from Tourine & encamp'd on the front of our right Wing.

Ingoldesby }
 Rantzau } Zell
 Elsto }

Stuckraad
 Crag
 Ripsdorf.
 Lieut. Col. Armstrong R

18 Battalions to be ready to march at 7 this Night (of these the English give 3, Churchill Webb & North) to parade on the right of the Windmill at Rognis, as soon as the Retreat is beat the whole Army to put down their Tents and to be ready to march. All the Outposts but that at Borgworm to come off