

The Line to be under Arms at 9; The Quarter Ma^{rs} at 5 Tomorrow at the first Battalion Royal to mark the Ground for the Review. The Provost to cause to be buried all the dead Horses.

3^d Oxenshera
Rantzau } Stockholm.
Elst }
Reke
Huyms
Liedwick
Lord Mar R

The 2^d Line to review Tomorrow, the 1st to relieve the posts, The Quarter Ma^{rs} to be at the 1st Battalion Royal at 5 in the Morning; The Major to take care that there be new springs made every 6 days & that all Fills be buried, the Line to be ready to march at 8 & wait Orders from the Major Gen^l of the day.

N^o 13 The Army reviewed by the Duke. The Earl of Sunderland was present.

4th Kolts }
Wilha's } Dusseldorp
Swartwille }
Exter
Bolo
Luch
Lieut^{nt} Col: Dalzell R

A Col: Lieuten^{nt} Col: & Major; Officers in proportion with 600 at Webb's Brigade this Evening, The Col: & Lieuten^{nt} Col: of our Army & the Major of the Dutch The Col: who was in Rich^d. Temple) to receive his Orders from Brigad^{er} Sactogan.

N^o 15 This Command was posted on the Road to Diest to assure our Convoys from thence

5th Lord Orkney }
Welderen } Prague
Ferguson }
Lalor
D'Ambell
Pletz
Lieuten^{nt} Col: Borthwick R

A Col: & 600 immediately at the Artillery to cover the Forragers; Tomorrow the Forragers at 6 at the Head of their Regiments & all to return upon firing 3 Cannon. A Brigadier of our Army & a Col: &c with 600 at 5 Tomorrow Morning, where Mons^r Eboy will meet them with Orders.

N^o 16 These 600 & a Detach^{mt} of Horses were joined by a Detach^{mt} of Mons^r Overkirk's Army, & march'd towards Andoins to cover the Posts, Order'd to demolish the Lines between Wavre & Helisheim. Mons^r Jooz had the Direction of this