

1765

Forragers at 4 in the Morning at the Scots Dragoons an Officer and 15 of each Regiment with them a Major and a Captain of each Brigade to take care of them. The Foot to follow the horse to the right The Sick to be at the Bread Waggon at 7 in the Morning. M<sup>B</sup>. Lowe offered to capitulate for the Town but was rejected unless for the whole to be Prisoners at War. The Guns arrived this day from Maestricht.

April 4th
 Should be 24th

Sholtz	} Vienna	Satorf
Bernsdorf		Beenhauer
Webb		London M. Parsons R.

Every Brig<sup>d</sup> to take care the Dead Horses of his Brigade be Buried, New Privys to be made, and orderly Man to be sent from the Out Posts to the Major of Brigade for the Day.

M<sup>B</sup> Lowe surrendered Prisoners of War without our firing a Shot at the place, found in it 17 pieces of Cannon abundance of Ammunition & Provisions & a great Quantity of Forrage.

5 th	Lord Orkney	} Copenhagen	Sibblesdorf
	Erberfelt		Rantzau
	Meredyth		Cleitze M. Davison R.

6th Account how much Forrage we have. The dead horses to be buried

	Oxenstern	} Berlin	Seckendorf
	St Paul		Negus
	Elst		Walter

A List of all the Prisoners come from the Enemy to 4 Majors of Brigade

7 th	Sholtz	} Dusseldorf	Godfrey
	Rantzau		Mead
	Swartzell		Postre M. Billingsby R.

A Captain 2 Subalterns 2 Sergeants and 50 of each Battalion to be conducted by the Regiments guns to the Places where they are