

The printed order to be given to the Chaplain of each Regiment for a Subject for a sermon the first halt, all the Troops who have right to call Court Marshals to come to Maj Gen Vilats an hour before orders, to wait for the Generals Orders, The Drums of the right to be at 2 in the Morning at Cadogan's Horse and those of the Left with the new Grand Guard at St Laurent's Regiment at the same time and both to March to Eisingen, The first come to wait for the others, the Old Grand Guards to be the Rear Guards, The Gen. at 3 Assembly half an hour after and to March at 4. The out posts to come off and join their Regiments. At the Troop beating. The Sick to be sent to Brussels. The Baggage at 4 in the Rear of the Train

30th The Army marched at Alost and passed the Dender The Enemy passed y. Scheld & continued still to retire as we advanced

Alost	Prince Holstembuck	} Lorraine	Murray
	Murray		Nimeyer
	Sittern		Darson

The Duty to be allowed in the Brig^{de} for Officers wounded in the Battle, and not able to do it, The Maj. of Brigade for the day to have the orderly Serjeants with them and to send orders as usual The Gen. at 3 The Assembly half an hour after to March at 4. On Marching days not to beat the Reveille and the Men not to take Arms till the March beat if the Baggage come up to night it is to be ready again at 4 in the Morning to wait in the Rear of the Regiments for a conductor, all Wheel Baggage found in the March of the Line to be Plundered, The Drums of the right to be at Wood's Horse by 2 and those of the left at the same time at the Danish Brigade of Horse, an Orderly Serjeant to be sent to give Notice to the Line when the Bread Waggon are come, Hepburn to be coll. and Hamilton Lieut Colonel to the late Bothwicks Regiment. Communications to be made this Night, The Lines in the March