

to break in the middle The first at the Blue Guards and the 2^d at Aderkasses Regiments. The Right Wing Defiles by the right & the 2^d Line to follow the first. The left is to do the same. The English Artillery and a Battalion with it follow the right Wing and the Baggage at the right to follow them. The Dutch Artillery and a Battalion with it to follow the left Wing and the Baggage of the left to follow them. The 2^d W^g of both right and left to meet at Gaver 31st The Army Marched from Alost and encamped. The right Wing at Merlebeck and the left at Gaver.

Merlebeck	Lord Orkney	} Ghent	Doik
	Collier		Lecher
	Nassau Word.		Laschary

Preaching to morrow at the head of every Regiment and the Orders to be Published to draw out before the Camp, in the Evening for the Feu de Joye. to take care the Balls are drawn, No Soldiers to cutt down Trees or pull down Houses, or go a Meranding on pain of Death. The Provost to go his Rounds to Forrage for this day & to morrow

June 1 st	Ingoldsby	} Alost	Vestmuller
	Lantland		Fryman
	Meredyth		Isack

No body to stir out of Camp, no Meranding to send a Serjeant with every 6 Men who go to Ghent, who want Forrage to send a foot for it Lieut Col Cranston to attend the Court Martial Duty with Maj Genl Villate, Communications to be made if we stay but 1 Night in a Camp

2 ^d	Dedem	} Las de Grand	Bernard
	Welderem		D'Amblell
	Capoll		Beveren

The Sick to be sent to Ghent with 14 days pay an Officer with them and a Serjeant of a Brigade

[Oxenstern.