

1706. The Guards to be Relieved by the first Line Tomorrow, to gather the money for the Detachments at Courtray & Harlebeck, a Capt & 2 Subalterns & 500 at 10 to Night at _____ Regiment, A Partisan will call for them. A Lieut. Genl & Col. with 2000. Horse & 600 Grenadiers to be at the Bridges at 2 in the Morning. (Mon. Dept the Lieut. Genl.)

18th Dedem }
 Bernsdorf } Magdeburg } Mey
 Borsett } } Mead
 } } Lang.

The Quarterma^{rs} of the 2^d Line to use their Ground for the Review & make a Report at 2 in the Morning at Wood's Regiment. 2 Capt: 6 Subalterns & 200 to wait there till called for. All 3 at Cuff Sprinckers 200 Regiment a Capt & 2 Subalterns & 500 Major Brigad^r. Ripporda will call for them. The Foot that want forage may send under Scouts of their own Brigades. The 2^d Line not to be reviewed till Tuesday.

19th P. Holstern }
 Sunderburg } Cleves } Dorop
 Capoll } } Col. Seake
 } } Postet.

Tomorrow at 5 in the Morning the 2^d Line to march to their Ground for the Review. Each Regiment may leave a Sergeant & Co to take care of their Camp the Camp Guards of the 1st Line to strike their Tents at 6 to make place for the Review of the 2^d Quarter Ma^{rs} to view the Ground Tonight.

20th Dedem }
 Withers } Amsterdam } Latorf
 Boisset } } Tachenhausen
 } } Levitz

The Regiments following are to march Tomorrow & their Soldiers to be relieved this Night from the Guards. The Regiment of Cronach to escort the Baggage. The Battalions & Squadrons to assemble between the Cuff Sprinckers Regiment and the Mill of Stare; The Baggage to stay behind their Regiments till call'd for, each Regiment to send a Man of a Company with them. The General Officers Baggage to assemble between Gen. Salutes Quarters & my Lord Orkneys at 3 in the Morning; the Quarter Masters to be