

ready at Evans's Regiment to be under Command of Monsieur Gaithem the Partisan

MB Upon Debates among the Generals it was resolved with M^{rs}.
 Hoflinga and Van Coulen the States Deputies That we had too few Troops to carry on the Siege and that it was thought that our Army might be insulted, and therefore to represent this to the Duke and defer the opening of the Trenches till his Answer. and our lines of Circumvallation finished and an Express was accordingly dispatched

Aug 2
 D Argyl } Holland and } Spar
 D Argyl } Amsterdam } Shuck

To continue the Workmen till the line is finished, to begin at 5 in the Morning and to leave off at 7 at night, 2 pickets to cover the States D^s A Major 3 Captains and 200 to be at the head of Evans for a Foraging party at 4 in the Morning. A Serjeant and 12 Men

MB. A Serj^t of North's was killed, visiting Mal a propos his Centries who gave way from their Posts fancying the Enemy to have forty?

3. Rantrau } Zeeland & } Milmeier
 Nassau W } Middleburgh } M^c Clean

The Work to continue but for the future to send only 50 a day of Regiment each Regiment to give a List of what Gabions they have made. 300 Workmen with a Major & with them, this night at 6 at the head of Ballons Regiment with Arms. one Engineer will call for them 400 and Officers in proportion will join these

MB The Duke sent us 7 Battalions from his Army to reinforce us. and appointed a Meeting next day with the States at Courtney, where M^r. Salischt, Blood and several others met him.

18
 4 Week } Savage & } Armstrong
 D Argyl } Turin } Nagel

The Workmen on the Bridge side to quit their Work for the Attack on the right, There shall be 600 Workmen with a Major & Officers in