

78

To relieve the Trenches, Major Generals Iberfeldt & Rantzau Brigadiers Capoll and Amarna with the Regiment of Lottum Jagel, Govin, Vegelin, Ingoldsbj, Pallant and Ghore. The Regim: to be precisely at 6 in the Evening at the Parade and to March at 7 The Workmen to follow the Regiments. The General Officers to be there. The Regiments encamped at the Intrenchments obliged to repair what they suffer to be spoiled of them at 7 to night to Work at the Batterys a Lieut: Colonel Major and 800 who are to be relieved in the Morning at 6 to night a Major and 500 Men to Work at pr. D'Anvoigns, to be relieved in the Morning by 300, every night an exact Account of the killed & wounded to be given in. The Workmen to carry Facines Pickets & Mallets MS The Accounts given in of our loss since the opening of Trenches.

 Appeared to be only Brigadier Capoll, Colonel Chambrier and the Command^r of Heroloms Regiment Wounded, 2 Officers killed and 13 Wounded 4 Serjeants killed and 7 Wounded and 50 Men killed and 210 Wounded, our Batterys are pretty forward and some of our Mortars already Mounted on the paralell we had 4 killed and 13 wounded this Night.

August 8th Week England Ramsay Swartrell London Vinckstein at 7 to night a Lieutenant and Officers in proportion with 800 Workmen to be behind Prince Danvergnis D^r who are to be relieved at 3 in the Morning by a Major and 600. For y^e Trenches M^{rs} Week & Villat and Brigadier Swartrell and D^r Argyle with Batt^r: Inf pr: Pruss, Stark Chambrier Haachansen Lalo Lander, and Rank. The Regiments that are relieved to come out of the Trenches the same way they went in and those to mount to be at the Parade exactly at 6 and to relieve immediately, No body to pass with Horses at the New Bridge except the States

 The