

The General Officers, Aids de Camp and Majors of Brigade, & list every night of the killed and wounded.

WB
August 9th The communications were finished so that we relieved by daylight

Week } Zeeland and } Folk Nassau W.^d } Flushing } Helmolt

For the Trenches Major General's Pallant & Pr. Sonderberg. Brig.
Nassau and J. Troupsell with the Regiments, pruss. Guards Grumo Hustling and Jan Eissenash. This last Regiment to Post it self between the Batteries and make cover. And on the left The Regiments of Webb, Stangoubing and J. Charria. At 6 to night at the blue Guards a Field Officer and 600 Workmen who are to be relieved at 3 in the Morning to play with 40 pieces of Cannon and all our Mortars. and before night had dismounted the great Savallier next to the Attack. We made a disposition for running a second Paralell, Engineer Du Mey & another were wounded, Lord Cuthney visited the Trenches

August 10th Willat } Holland & } Bormama

D. Angyl } Zeeland } Nagel

To night for the Trenches M. G. Libersfelt & Rantrau, Brig.
Amama and the Eldest Colonell to act in place of Capoll, 8 Batt.
Hollands, J^d Hucklorn, Heyden, Lontland, North, Swartzall &
Rantrau, Lontland to take the post by the Batteries, at 6. 100 Workmen and a Field Officer at the prussian Guards and the same at the P^r. Danveroigns 2^d to be relieved in the Morning by 250 Woolpacks. Gabions &c. to be carried to the Entry into the Trenches

WB Our Batterys were all mounted 71 pieces of Cannon & 44 Mortars which play'd very warmly, we sprung several small Magazines of the Enemy's powder and one of the Bombs fell into one of our Magazines of 30 Bombs, springing them but