

80
our Grenadoes from the small Mortars and Stones from the Big ones Lord Arkney visited the Trenches W.B. My Lord D. right moved nearer to a place called Billeghem

14
Rantzau } Espagne } Sixmore
Swartzell } Madrid } Starke Trenches Maj^r General, Weck & Villat, Brigadiers Swartzell and Colonel de Lem with Regiments, Gronco, Saxeisenack Hanhausen Tshamer De Leur, Chambrier & Shiffen this Night to relieve Rank, The Majors of Brigade to mark every day what Regiments relieve one another, A Field Officer and 600 for Work at the Batteries at 6 to night at pr. Danvergn to receive Orders from the Colonel of the Artillery. The Regiments to be at the Parade at 4 to enquire for Miners who are to have one Guilder aday, They must apply to the Captain of the Miners, 200 with a Major at 6 at the Prussian Guards for Work. To be relieved in the Morning by a Captain and 100. 250 with a Major for Work at prince Danvergn to be relieved in the Morning - The Regiments to continue to make Gabions

W.B. Captain Jenkel and another Captain of that Regiment with two or three other Officers were wounded in the Trenches. G.M.
Oberfelt received a slight Wound, at night, The Enemy threw a great many Grenadoes into our Sapwork, and our Grenades do the same into their Counterscarp and covered Way, Count Wilder a Volunteer was wounded in the Trenches, We had about 25 Soldiers wounded with the Grenadoes

15
Weck } Groningen } Baldwin
D D'Angyle } Saale lande } Mac lane

Trenches on the right Major General Pallant and the oldest Colonel, Regiments Prussian Guards, Swartzell and Bedam Slangenbung to relieve Shiffing, and for the left Major Gen Pr.