

P. Sonderberg and Brigadier D. Dargyle with Battalions Webb, Fluchloms and Rantaw a Field Officer and 600 for the Batterys. At the blue Guards at 6 to night The Regiments to relieve to be at the Parade precisely by 4, no body to Rob or disturb the Country People coming in with provisions on pain of Death The Provost to go his Rounds and to hang all Offenders
 A Major and 300 Workmen for the left to be at the blue Guards at 6 to night, relieved in the Morning by a Captain and 150 for the Right a Field Officer with 350 at 6 at the press: Guards relieved in the Morning by 200

WB. We ran our Sapps since last night within 10 paces of the Palisadoes and though the Enemy made a great Fire we had but one Man killed and about 25 or 30 wounded, Lord Orkney visited the Trenches

th 16 Villat } Denmark & } Lubins
 D. Dargyle } Copenhagen } Nagel

Trenches on the right, Major General Rantaw and the oldest Colonel, Battalions, Blue Guards, Orange & Heyden, Donep relieves Stangenburgh, The left Brigadier Duboussell Batts: North, How and Murray 600 Workmen for the Batterys 300 Workmen for the right relieved in the Morning by 150 and 300 for the left relieved by 200, The ways into the Approaches to be mended none to Lutt Wood between the Town and the Regiments

WB We wrought all Day to enlarge the Trenches and advance our Sapps, at Night we began to Work at 2 Mines at the Angles Salient of the Lovers Way

th
 17 Pallant } England } Ramsay
 D. Dargyle } London } Grenville

Trenches on the right. Major Generals, Week and the Oldest Battalions, Prince Royal Prussian, Albermarle, Lantlande
 &