

the Abby of Linam betwixt which place and the Townbridges were laid for passing the Scheld. The Baggage and Artillery pass'd this Night

Sept^r 5th Orkney } Leipsig { Gossidge
 Webb } { Vincent
 Wassenaar } { Blackader

Peleghem To Forrage for this Night and to morrow but to be in readiness to March, if occasion, to send for Straw with Escorts a Colonel & 1000 Foot to morrow Morning at 5 at the Mill of Rinkhaven To receive Orders from Brigadier Cadogan, a Lieut. Col. & 400 to be at the said Mill at 6 this Evening to take post in the Church Yard of Avelghem

N.B. The Army pass'd the Scheld in 2 Columns The right wing upon the Bridges of pontoons below Oudenarde and the left wing thro' the Town, and continued the March and encamped The right near Outegem and the left running by Kirkhove to Peleghem, we had yet no Account of the Enemies passing y^e Scheld

6th Ingoldsbey } Rocrmonde { Morris Erberfelt } { Ramsay
 Gandaker } { Cunningham

200 immediately to the Artillery to go with the Bread Waggons
The Gen^l at 6 The Assembly 'till an hour after and to March at 7. The 2nd W^{rs} at 4 at Lurnley's Regiment The Baggage to stay in the Camp till called for any found before the Lines to be plundered, none to mark I^{rs} but those ordered by the 2^d M^{rs} Gen^l.

N.B. We halted the 6th till the ways were made to take the Camp at Helchin and the post at Pont Despierres. we received Advice that the Enemy marched this Morning towards Pont a Trepin and between that and Lill^e.

Hucklon