

and to receive a flatagoon for every one they bring home to their Regiments from the Commander. None to stir. Days will be regularly appointed for the Men to go for Wood and Roots and Officers with them

WB The Forrage was sent of the Villages appointed for the English being already Forraged by the Foreigners

th
10

|         |          |           |
|---------|----------|-----------|
| Sholts  | } Anvers | Groves    |
| Villatt |          | Sharp     |
| Boisset |          | Ligoniere |

Muste Rolls ready from 24th August to 23 October. Brigadier Blood's Equipage to be sold on Monday at the Train. 200 Workmen and 500 Coverers at 5 to morrow at pont de spieries. The Workmen to have 8<sup>d</sup> a day. The Posts of Avelghen and those to Ondermarde to be reinforced, That they may the better Escort the Bread Waggons none to putt without orders, No General Officers to send Billets to the Villages to demand Forrage for themselves but must send a list to Mons<sup>r</sup>. Dops and Forrage will be delivered them. The Corps of each Nation, that is to furnish a Field Officer, For the General Council of War, must give his name in to Major Genl. Villat the President. and must send an orderly Serjeant to him Genl. Lattum to be taken notice of as Genl. of Foot all Detachm<sup>ts</sup> to assemble at the head of the Regiments nearest the Parade where the Major of Brigade must carry them. 200 to be at Lord Staires Regiment by 2 in the Morning to cover the English Forragers, who are to follow the Horse.

WB The English Foot Foraged between the Lis & Scheld by Brigades behind the camp.

th
11

|         |          |        |
|---------|----------|--------|
| Fagel   | } Vienna | Mead   |
| Pallant |          | Selwin |
| Trouple |          | Murray |