

6th
 S. Anne & } Lieut. Gen. Lord Orkney
 Londres } Major Gen. Webb
 Brig. Keppel } day

Colt Lalo
 Lieut. Colt Blwin } Recpt.
 Maj. Blackadder }

The Provost to go his Rounds Tomorrow & to hang all Merroders. 100 Men with Subalterns to be at Menin at 4 this Afternoon to be lightly cloathed to go on a 'partisan' party. A Lieut. Gen. 3 Brigades & 3000 Foot to assemble in the Rear of the Danes on the left at 10 Tomorrow Morning.
 The Lieut. Gen. Spaar, the Major Gen. Villates, Brig. Evans, Bilks & Naglo 2 Subalterns & 50 Men at 5 in the Morning at Rantzaws Regim. of Horss, they will be sent for.

N.B. Lieuten. Gen. Spaar with his Detachment covered a grand forage of the left Wing in the Neighbourhood of Spres.

7th
 S. Maice & } Lieuten. Gen. Diadem
 Anvers. } Major Gen. Meredith } day
 Brig. de Rosel }

Colt Windsor } Recpt.
 L. Colt Gyrys }
 M. Lathol }

Capt 2 Subalterns & 50 Men to be at the Head of Rantzaws Horss at 5 Tomorrow morning, 30 Squadrons with the Duke of Wirtemberg to march immediately.

N.B. Thirty Squadrons under Command of the Duke of Wirtemberg were detach'd to Audenarde to wait Prince Eugenes Orders, this Detachment was made as soon as we heard our Artillery was come from Bruxelles & upon Advice that the Enemy had formed an Army at Melle between Ghent & Alost of 25000 Men which might be designed to attack our Convoy Bruxelles. My Lord Duke acquainted Prince Eugene with this, who came with the Convoy of Artillery this Night to Bravin to Compts & Loignies

8th
 S. Helene & } Lieuten. Gen. P. Rolfeyn
 Nunmequon } Major Gen. Schwartzell } day
 Brig. Temple }

Col Hamilton } Recpt.
 L. Colt Oughton }
 Major Murray }

The Guards in the Fronts of the Regim. to continue to hinder Merroders the Maj. Gen. of the Foot to give the States Orders, there will be a Disposition