

for foraging given this Afternoon N.B. We had repeated Orders ^{to be in readiness to} to march to meet our Convoys in case of necessity at the joining of 3 pieces of Cannon, this Night they arrived safe at Ath.

St. Bernard } Lieut. Genl. Withers } Day } Coll Mead } Regt.
 St. Pierre } Major Genl. Wike } } Lieut. Coll Lambert }
 Turin } Brigad. Lord North } } Major Fletcher }

The Report to be made at Eight in the Morning at the Duke's Quarters N.B. The Convoys lay still still at Ath.

10th } Lieut. Genl. Lord Orkney } Day } Coll Newton } Regt.
 St. Pierre } Major Genl. Pallant } } Lieut. Col. Oldfield }
 Turin } Brig. Coll Nassau Wandenberg } } Major Flemming }

The Heavy Baggage to be loaded Tomorrow at 3 in the Afternoon behind their Regiments the Conductors will call for them, a List to be given in of the 1st 30 Battalions who are next to march.

N.B. The Convoys with Prince Eugene came to Troano our Heavy Baggage was ordered to be ready loaded at the Rear of the Regiments.

St. Bernard } Lieut. Coll Diedem } day } Coll Pocock } Regt.
 St. Pierre } Major Genl. Weldoron } } L. Coll Desonay }
 Turin } Brig. Suon } } Major Blackadder }

Thirty Battalions to be Commanded by the Prince of Orange Lieut. Genl.
 Spaar, Prince Holsteyn Major Genl. Lollyor Zoutland Briggs Wafsonaar Keppel Temple Bossett and de Spouffell to be this Afternoon at 3 o'clock at the English Artillery, to take only their light Baggage with them & to leave an Officer of each Regiment to take care of the Men they have upon Command; The English give 5 Battalions, viz. Godfrey, Ingoldby, Sabins, Pinxten & Lalo. All the Heavy Baggage of the Army to be sent this Afternoon to Menin, the General to beat at 4 Tomorrow Morning, Half an hour after the Assembly, the Army to march at 5

N.B. Prince Eugene with all the Artillery passed the Scheld at Poth and encamped to