

at Helchin, upon which the Prince of Orange was detached with 30 Battalions and Lieuten^t Gen^l Wood with about as many Squadrons designed for the Siege to take Post at the Pont a Marquo near the Abby of Marquelles half a League from Lille and the Army had Orders to march next Morning.

12th
St. Marc &
Venice

Camp at Helchin

Lieuten^t Gen^l Witheres

Major Gen^l Denhoff

Brig^{ad} Borgh

day

Cott Churchill

Lieuten^t Cott Riads

Major Cunningham

Piegt.

To be in a readiness to march to take Forrage in the Camp, when the Gen^l beats the Heavy Baggage to be sent to the Artillery & the Gen^l of the day to go to the Duke's Quarters for the Orders of march.

13th
The Army marched & passed the Lie at near Menin & encamp^t the Right between Haulsire & Helchin & the left at Rodeghem the same day Prince Eugene marched with 21 Battalions of his Army & all his Horse that came from Bruxelles and encamped at Templeuve & having sent all the Artillery to Menin.

St. Jacques
& Copenhagen

Lieuten^t Gen^l Orkney

Major Gen^l Tetaw

Brig^{ad} Primrose

day

Cott Windress

L^{ieut} Cott Holmondley

Major Fletcher

Piegt.

The Enemy to be ready to march at the firing of pieces of Cannon & the Heavy Baggage to be sent at same time to the Artillery. Major Gen^l Perusdorff to be sold tomorrow at his Regiment.

14th
Lille was invested the Prince Eugene took his Quarters at the Abbey of Loos, the Peasants of the Country were all summoned to make the Circumvallation & our Army still in a Readiness at the Enemy's Motion.

St. Medard & Bruxelles

L^{ieut} Gen^l Diedem

May^{or} Gen^l Duke of Argyll

Brigadier Sabino

day

Cott Cranston

Lieut^t C. Arundel

M. Leslie

Piegt.

All partys of the Enemy who are found in Woods Groves or without Soldiers to be treated as Voleurs the Orders of the Army to be ready