

an Escort of 500 Men to be at the break of day at the head of Orkneys first Battalion

WB The English had leave given them to Forage with an Escort of their own between Audenarde and Courtray, they lost some Horse

22 ^d	Lt. Genl Deidem	} day	Col. Windrefs	} Brig. ^t
St Victor &	M. G. C. Denhoff		Lt Col. Head
Barclonne	Brig. Owen		M. North

At six to night to be at the Dukes for Orders of marching, The Genl. at six The Assembly half an hour after and March at seven The Baggage to be at the Artillery by 5, To leave Guards with the Forage the Quarter Masters at the Bridges at 3, the Order of March to be sent for to M^r Sadogan

WB... We had advices that the Enemy had made a Disposition for Marching, and their ways towards Gramont upon which the Horse in the left wing marched and came to encamp behind the right wing to be nearer and in areadinefs to pass the River. Trenches were opened at Lisle this night.

Camp at Amogies

23 ^d	Lt. Genl. C. Oxenstern	} day	Col. Armstrong	} Brig. ^t
St Jerome &	M. Genl Fettau		Lt Col. Cholonondly
Leyden	Brig. Govain		Maj ^r Selsly

1200 immediately at the Danish Guards, half of them to have Tools for working to be Commanded by a Colonel, take Forage on y^e ground and to be in areadinefs to March, Communications to be made in the Front and Flanks that Grand Divisions may March, The Major General of the Day to visit them, the Wheel Baggage to remain with the Artillery. The Duke is very Angry and should have been seen with the Lines on this March, The Brigadiers and Majors of Brigades to be at the Quarters at 6 for Orders

WB. We had advices that the Duke of Berwick was Marched & that the