

109.

the Duke of Burgundy and he would join, so to be near in case they attempted any thing on Bruxelles we passed the Scheld at Polles and encamp't our right there The Army running by Amoye to Wandripoint fronting to Courmay

24th
 Bernard
 Charles Bonne

St Genl Withers	} day	Col. Cranston	} Picq ^t
M. G. D. Argyll		St C Ramsay
Brig. Vermuler		M Chivers

The Report to morrow at 8. to be ready to march at the firing of 3 Guns and the Generals of the day to come for the order of March when the 3 Guns are fired the General is to beat, A Major & Officers in proportion with 150 Men to be immediately at the English Artillery where they will find a Guide, a Captain and 100 Men to be posted at Berkhym and a Lieut. with 30 at the Bridge of Schoune 24th MB. We received Accounts that the Enemy were still in their camp but making all preparations for a March and our Army had orders to be in areadiness to wait their Motion.

25th
 Anne
 Windsor

St Genl Lord Arkney	} day	Col. Sutton	} Picq ^t
M Gen Webb		St Col. Lockburn
Brig. Rank		Maj. Wilde

The orders of Yesterday to be observed, the Provost to go his rounds and take up all those he finds transgressing of Orders and hang them at the head of their Regiments 25th MB We had no certain advices of the Enemy's March but we were still ordered to be ready at the firing of 3 Guns

26th
 Edward Audenarde

St Genl Deidem	} day	Col. Windsor	} Picq ^t
M. G. Swartrell		St Col. Arundel
Brig. Porck		M. Buckeridge

To be in areadiness to March, all the Wheel Baggage to continue at the Artillery, a Lieut. Colonel with 300 to be immediately at the English Artillery to Escort the Bread Waggon to Alth, there are 10