

111 113
Helchin, We had Accounts that our Convoys from Alth had not long passed before some Bodies of the Enemy came to Lessines & all our Advices confirming that the Enemy directed their March towards Tournay we received orders to hold ourselves in a readiness to March

St Gen: L. Oxenstern } day Col. Windres
M: G. Welderen } Lt Col: Stanhope } Brig:
Brig: Nagle } M North }

The Duke of Argyl Gen: Maj: and Brig: Primrose to be with 6 Battalions immediately at Pont Espieres, The Major General to receive his Orders from the Duke, The Baggage to return to the Artillery, a list to be given in of what Ammunition is wanting to make up 24 Shott to each Man. Alth's pay to be sent to the Detachment at Alth, to be every minute in a readiness to March, My Lord Albemarle has lost a Gold Watch whoever finds it shall be well rewarded, The Guard on the Artillery Horses to stay always with them till they are Yoked, The Majors of Brigade at 6 for Orders, at 3 Guns the General to beat, The Battalions commanded to take only their Baggage Horses

The Guns to fire at one o'clock afternoon and to march at two Camp at Templeuve

The General at 7 in the Morning, The Assembly at half an hour after and to march at 8. The Drums at 2 in the Morning at Lumley's Regiment 1000 foot with Arms and Tools for work to be there at midnight all Wheel Baggage to be with the Artillery to night, any that's found to morrow with the Lines shall be Plund?

MB. Upon the Advices we received that the Enemy were marching by Leure towards Tournay we decamp'd about 2 in the Afternoon and Marched in two lines by the Right the first line by Pont Espieres and the second above it and encamped our left at Pont fin