

marched all day in our Front and encamped their right near Merignies and their left at Mons en Peve & Templeuve en Peve, we encamp'd about three in the Afternoon in the order we had been drawn up in, My Lord Duke took his Quarters at Tretin.

th
5 St Antoine & Padoie } St Gen Withers } day } Col. Hamilton }
M. G. Swartzell } } } St Col. Cockburn }
Brig. Govain } } } M. Belingsley } Picquet

An Officer of each Regiment to be orderly at My Lord Dukes at 8 to night to meet the Majors of Brigade 100 of each Battalion without Arms for Work at two oflock at the Holland's Artillery the Drums of the Foot with the Camp Colours at the Prince of Hesses Dragoons at 12 oflock to day, every nation a Field Officer and every Regiment a Captain and 2 Subalterns & a Brigadier to Command the whole

MB. The Prince Eugene returned to the Siege with his Troops and the Resolutions were taken to cast up an Intrenchment from the Mill of Moyelles to Tretin that the Enemy might not alarm us or disturb us from going on with our Siege. The Enemy lay still

th
6 St Albans & Utrecht } St Gen Craze } day } Col. Groves }
M. G. Hohendorf } } } St Col. Brundel }
Brig: Veitmuler } } } M. Blackadder } Picquet

All the Drums to be at 10 oflock this Morning at Schulerberg's Regiment when the Camp is marked to send for the Forage the Workmen to be relieved every six hours 2000 of which 300 are to be Grenadiers with a Brigadier & 4 Colonels and other Officers in proportion to be at 5 in the morning to morrow at Pallbrachs Regiment, the Regiments to March into their new Ground at six in the Morning

N. B We continued Working all day at our Intrenchment & because it was proper the Foot should possess themselves of it, orders were