

17th with the Train

Joseph & Marie

St. Gen. L. Orkney	} day	Col. Churchill	} Regt.
M. Gen. Stockendorff		Ld. Col. Arundel
Brig. Govain		M. Hamars

no body to stir out of Camp but to be in a readiness to march as ordered last night, when the assembly beats the Tents are to be pulled down and to take the march from the left, the Baggage is to go to the Artillery at the same time and the Gen. of the day to send to M. Cadogan for the Order of the march. In case we dont march the Maj. of Brigade are to be at six to night at my Ld. Dukes, the Provost nor Majors nor adjutants are to exact no dues for those who sell provisions in the Camp the General to beat at 7 to morrow morning the Assembly at 9 and to march in half an hour after, the Dr. M. to be at 9 at Albermarles Quisee.

NB

Those we had sent to reconnoitre brought accounts that the Enemy had actually pass'd the Scheldt at & about Tournay and were a marching down the other side of the River as they gave out to take the Pass at Pont L'epieries my Ld. Dukes Trumpet came from Tournay and con-firm'd this.

Camp at Templeuwe

18

Argorie & Breda

St. Gen. Deidem	} Day	Col. Windress	} Regt.
M. Gen. Rantzau		Ld. Col. Selwin
Brig. Rank		M. North

The Baggage to remain at the Artillery, to send to the old Camp for the Forrage, the Maj. of Brig. at 6 to night at the Dukes, all the Grenadiers to march at break of day with 3 Col. of Gen. to the left of the line to Ponta Vecone, they are to receive their Orders from the General of the day.

NB

We march'd in two Columns and repass'd y^e Marque where we had pass'd it