

another Convoy being necessary but this Major could not pass and several others he sent, The Enemy having taken possession of Peters Cappell and several places on the side of the banale between us and Leffingh. We had likewise Accounts that Mons.^r de Vendome was come himself to Oud. enburgh and encamp with 30000 Men to cut of our communication and hinder our Convoys which grew pretty necessary, Ammunition begining again to be wanting at the Siege.

5th St. Genl. Oxenstern } Col. Pocock
M. G. Swartzell } day St. Col Reid } Bicquet
Brig: Croon } M. Chivers }

Major General Webb with his 12 Battalions to join the Army to morrow and to bring their Forrage with them: MB This was Countermanded. MB. We had nothing extraordinary at A Roncq, only in the night 5 or 6 houses were burnt by Accident

6th St. Genl. Fagel } Col Groves
M. G. Hohendorff } day St. Col Demay } Picq.^r
Brig: Govain } M. Leslie }

one hundred men to remain in the Posts at Lumley 100 at Tourcoin at Watrels to be taken off, 100 to remain at Roubaix those at Mouscron to be taken off, Eleven Battalions to be commanded immediately with Brigadier Vertmuler to go to join M. G. Webb at Morselle. The Battalions are 2 English one Prussian, one Dane, one Hanover, and six Hollanders. The English are 2 Battalions Royal and Webbs, The two Detachm^{ts} of the 7th September and 3 October that were to be commanded to attack Lille are to receive their money and to send for it to the Major of Brigade Staples an Account to be given in, how many of them were killed

MB The Duke having received repeated Accounts that it was impossible