

impossible to receive any more Succours from Ostend till the Enemy had left the posts they had taken up, it was resolved to March towards, with the whole Army except a few Battalions and Squadrons to be left to Prince Eugenes Order. Our Advices said that the Duke of Vendomes Army about Oudenburgh was 60 Battalions and 70 Squadrons, Our March was kept very secret and the Disposition made for every Corps to march by it self like Detachments only 11 Battalions & 10 Squadrons were sent to join Mr Webb the better to cover our March, who had orders to take all the Rout to Roupslaer.
