

for a boord to the Horragers of the English, the ^{Duke} Desires all the boord Waggons in the Army to be sent for two Days to the Dutch Train no body to stir out of Camp on any pretence without leave from the Commander the Rolls to be call'd four times a day and those who are about to be punished an Officer to be sent to Coskan to reconnoike for roots to the men, the detaile of the Army to be made by Reg^{ts} and not by Nations, the Carpenters sent out to be made good in the Detaile, Notice to be given that is safe by Day to Countray but not by night, Provisions to be bought at Ostend without import. The English Men ordered to make a Forrage towards Aschemp the Enemy finding of what importance Leflingh was to us, and that the States had sent orders to import and Export Provisions at Ostend without any duty resolved to Attack it in good earnest, Mon^r. Devendorne going thither in Person ordered it to be Besieged upon Dikes and with Gallies Cannonaded it.

18th Lt Gen^l Oxenstern } Col^l Sutton }
Lt Gen^l Dargyle } day Lt Col^l Selwen } Reg^t
Brig^{ade} Sabine } M. Hammers }
The Major of Brigade and Aids de Camp to be at 5 to night at my Lt Dukes Quarters.

18th The Velt Marshal Overkirk Dyed.
Lt Gen^l Withers } Col^l Windsor }
Lt Gen^l Swartzel } day Lt Col^l Gurs } Reg^t Brig^{ade} Landsperg } M. Lefse } a Col^l Lt Col^l and a Major with 500 foot to be at eleven this morning at Schornbergo Reg^t. The Col^l to Receive his orders from my Lt Duke. Those Regiments who have Pikes may change them for Musq^s 40 Sq^s under command of Lt Gen^l. Lumley to be be ready to March to Day at 12 a lock.

These