

Corn buried he shall have 12 Skillings each Sack but if found otherways not a farthing, The Generals of each Nation to meet to appoint a Regulation against Maroding

MB. We had Accounts that the Enemy had made several Attacks on Seffinghern and were repulsed in one of them we took a Major General Prisoner

22^d St. Ignace & St. Bernard
Lt. Col. Oxenstern } day Col. Churchill } Picquet
M. G. Villatts } Lt. Col. Dismay }
Brig. Croone } M. Billingsley }

No body to stir out of camp. each Nation to give a list of the corn found in the camp. This list to be given to Colonel Durell who will pay them & The Orders against Meroding to be immediately published at the head of each Regiment. The Officers to be present: The Report at 9 to morrow Morning and the Orders to be given out at the same time.

MB. The Enemy having set Fire on the Breaches at Lille the 20th and every thing being ready to give the Assault they beat the chamade this day at four in the Afternoon. Provisions grew still scarcer in our camp and the Enemy refused Passports to all Generals except the Duke. The General Officers made a aregulment for sending by nations out for Roots for the Men & for Forrage

23^d St. Francois & Courtray
St. Gen. Withers } day Col. Armstrong } Picquet
M. G. Pallant } Lt. Col. Reid } Brig. Govain } M. Leslie }

no body to stir out of camp. To be in areadiness to march.

24^d St. Ferdinand & Anvers
St. G. Lord Orkney } day Lt. Col. Holmondeley } Picq.
M. G. Denhoff }
Brig. Vermuler }

One Field Officer to be commanded for the Picquet only MB