

The Roads between Deamuyd and Roufslaer to be mended orders to morrow at the Dukes at 3 in the Afternoon

A Major and 300 Men to be Commanded immediately to receiv his Orders from Col. Lottum, A Major and 300 Men immediately commanded to Assemble at the British Artillery for mending the Roads 10th St. Gen. Deidem

St Bernard & M. G. Swartzell } day St. Col. Arundel Picq.
Anvers Brig Du Buil }

No body to send out for Boots without orders 11th St. Gen. Oxenstern
St Anfoine M. G. Hohndorf } day St. Col. Selwin Picquet
Padoue Brig. Landsperg }

No body to take Boors Horses or Waggon on pain of death and those who have any must immediately return them, whoever can find a partisan of Ipres who comes frequently into the Army must take him up he's a middle sized Man, short frizled brown hair a brown coat and blue Waistcoat & Breeches.
At Eleven this Forenoon a Lieut. 3 Serjeants and 60 Men to be upon the Market Place of Roufslaer lightly cloath'd to go upon party

12th St. Gen. Withers
St Simon & M. G. Denhoff } day. St. Col. Guise Picq.
Lintz Brig. Croone }

The English to Forrage to morrow a Lieut. Col. with Officers in proportion with 500 foot to be ready for the Lover.

13th St. Gen. Pitkney
St Blaise & M. G. Swartzell } day St. Col. Stanhope Picquet
Inspruck Brig Vertmuller }

The Report at nine to morrow Morning
Lieut. P