

The heavy Baggage all to be sent away as ordered 16 days Forrage with them, small guards to be sent with them and to keep 14 days Forrage here, the 2^d M^{rs} to mark a place in the Counterscarp for each Regiments Baggage

22^d St Michael & Coenstern } day Lt Col. Slaughter Picquet
Coblentz M. G. Welden }
Brig. Govain }

The Posts between this and Menin to remain on their posts all night for the safety of those who are carrying the Forrage

23^d St Andre & Denhoff } day Lt Col. Desmay Picq^t Edinburgh Brig. Rank }

The General at six to morrow morning the Assembly a hour after and to March at 7 all the Baggage that's not gone to be immediately sent away. The Generals of the day to beat the Dukes at 3 this Afternoon for Orders of March. Countermanded the March till next day

24th St Charles & Tetlow } day Lt Col. Reid Picq^t Menin Brig. Rank }

No body to be sent with the Baggage but Invalids everybody to be in the Camp to morrow night between Courtray and Menin. The Gen^l to beat at six in the Morning the Assembly half an hour and to march at 7 each Soldier to carry a bundle of Straw to mend the roads, The Gen^{ls} of the day to be at the head of Orkney's first Battalion half an hour before seven the Foot to March before the Horse, Those Reg^t out of the Line to take their Posts. The Quarter Masters at Lumley's Regiment at four in the Morning

Camp at Harlebeck.

L