

will come to morrow to take them to their Posts, they are to Parade at Lumleys at 6 this Evening the other 800 to parade at the same time at Webb's Regiment and to march to night to Rume. Where the D^r M^r Gen^l Spotswood will call for them to morrow to conduct them to their post. The Foragers at the head of their Regiments at 6 in the Morning and to march by the right 500 horse to be likewise Commanded for the Escort. There was Yesterday a Brigadier and an Engineer taken going into To Town, The Brigadier was one Villemont. The lines of Circumvallation on the other side of the Scheld were almost finished, and we took up all the posts on the little ruisseau near the Citadelle

6 th	D Orkney	} St Andre & Naples	} Rank & Douglas	} Warsborough Reid Penchire
	Ghor
	Du Troussell

each Regiment to send a Wagon to the head of Lumley's Regiment at 12 to day, to be sent for bread. to deliver the Boon Waggon

MB Orders came early this Morning for 5 Batt^s to March, and follow the Grenadiers to pont amarque (D North's Batt. was one

The whole right wing made a Forage about Auckey & Mons en pevelle, we had Accounts that the Enemy took Warenton with the Col. of Salish's Regiment and about 700 Prisoners, the 1st in the Afternoon the Enemy had about 17 Battalions & several Squadrons, They Attacked pont ronge but were beat off, & the 5th in the Morning so soon as our Grenadiers began to appear they took the Alarm, pulled down their Tents and marched off in great confusion leaving behind 13 Waggon loaded with Palisades which had been brought in for our use at Warenton & intended to have been carried off, with their bread Waggon to Ipres. early this morning 5 Battalions were detached from the Army to follow the Grenadiers and to encamp near pont a Marquee to sustain

Warenton