

pass through the Town and a detachment of Foot from the Siege (4000) under Command of Lieut. Genl. Deidem, was Ord. to march and joyn the Prince of Hesse who had orders to advance before the Army towards Mons, to surprize a Passage on the Train and the Enemys lines between Givray and Mons.

Septemberth Rantrau } St Christian Windsor Brifford } Tettan } and } Murray Dubruil } Naples } Ron

The Genl. at 3 The Assembly 1/2 an hour after and to March at 4 by the left. The D<sup>ns</sup> of Albermarles Carabiniers at 3 a Field Officer of each Wing to lead them It is expressly Ordered that good Communications be made this night, to facilitate the March to morrow, The Order of March at the D<sup>s</sup> at 7 to night

MB The left wing passed the Scheld at Mortaigne the Right at Anthoine and Prince Eugenes Army between that place and Tournay, The whole continued their March, and encamped at Briffourt and Basseules running towards Guerancamp
 The prince of Hesse keeping still a March before the Army with his Detachment

5 } L Dohna } St Athanasius Hamilton
 Priority of } Lord North } and } Farmer Sirault } Lalo } Bruxelles } Emy

The General at 3 The Assembly 1/2 an hour after and to march at 4 The D<sup>ns</sup> at 2 at Albermarles Carabiniers The Army to March by the left and to keep up as close as possible

MB Tho' the Weather was bad and abundance of our Men behind the last March, yet the Army continued its March & encamped the right at Bailluel and by Neufmaison running to the left at Erizoel The Duke had his D<sup>s</sup> at the Abby of Siran and the prince of Hesse advanced with his Detachment thro the