A Court Martial to morrow at 9 at the Dukes Col. Windhops Pres.

MB The British Troops Foraged about Senef & Marimont
We had now several Batteries mounted but the Weather continuing so bad we could not advance much with our Iron-ches. Ordered 50 Men and a Sub. immediately at the English Artillery to make Bridges. At one this Afternoon to send to baskari for two days bread The Army not to change the Camp till we had 24 hours fair Weather

3^d Colyear } St Maximilian } Treack Denhoff } and } Oldfield
Govain } Vienna } McLean

An Officer of each nation to be sent to night to know of Col.
Durell when they must send for Bread. to march to morrow early to the new Camp by Corps. The Soldiers to take their straw with them. no body to stir from the Camp

MB... The Bread waggons could not come further than baskari because of the bad Roads so that we were forced every bread day to send our Horses for it. The Weather begining to grow better we began to go by the Sapp towards the Hornwork at the Attack at Bartamont, we had no considerable loss hitherto
