

for the Battalions to go into Lord Orkney went off at break of day (The Lieut. Gen^{ls} not being to remain in the Trenches) and left the Command of them to Maj^r Gen^l Massenan. The Maj^r Gen^{ls} of the day are likewise for the Trenches

5th Dohna } St Anne Keppell } and Dubruill } Londres

The Regiments for the Trenches to night, Sabine, Albermarle, Dedam and Govain who are to be exactly at 6 behind the Pr. of Oranges &c. The Maj^r of Brigade for the Day to be at Prince of Oranges &c. at 2 in the Afternoon

WB The 1350 Workmen perfected the Parallel & Communication for the entry into the Trenches not made. We had no loss. The Lieut General visited the Trenches and to continue to do so for every day in their Turns

6th Lord Orkney } St.ienne Vegelin } and
 Montere } Dresden

For the Trenches to night at 6 The Regiments of Primrose, Hamilton, Lourder and Mey at the same time a Lieut. Col. &c. and 1000 Men for Work. relieved by break of day a Major & 500 a Serjeant hereafter to Command the ~~Grays~~ the Regiments always to make Returns at 6. in the Morning to the Major of the Trenches of their killed and wounded. The Paymasters of the British, to be at the Dukes &c. to get directions about going for Money. WB At each Attack a new Parallel was begun above 200 Paces before the first but was not joyned, we had 36 killed & wounded

7th Dhona } St Jeane
 Mchartry } and Berkoffer } Hanover